The big counter and rack which stood in the midst of the Sweeney Shoe Store has been moved to the center, and the trucks which were there in the corner where E. M. Thomas formerly had his clothing quarters. The appearance of the store is much improved by the change.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather, the Universalist Fair closed $206.33 and the People's church, who were under the same management, about $100 more, this making over $300—a goodly sum for. This includes the generous gift of $25 from B. F. Spinyee & Co.

We clip the following from "The Yankee N. Y. Statesman about former Norway resident:—Many handsome presents and letters of congratulation—expressions of highest esteem—were received from her friends in Maine, Boston and Washington, March 13th, by Mrs. Betsey Rowe, who resides with her son, E. M. Rowe, in the Fort Cornwallis, to London Street. She was celebrated for her 60th birthday. In a letter to the friends of the event, she said her friends in honor of the event, she and her friends were given birthday luncheon. Misses, with friends and "Aunt Letty" gave, with wishes for many birthday returns, closed the pleasant occasion."
